PART B – REMOVAL INFORMATION

Section 155-13.70-A (1b) of the Will County Zoning Ordinance states that regulations authorizing the conversion of static displays to dynamic displays are intended to provide an incentive for voluntary and uncompensated removal of nonconforming advertising signs. Therefore, static advertising signs subject to a process that includes involuntary removal and/or compensation, such as eminent domain, are not eligible for credit towards a static to dynamic conversion. This includes signs that are subject to involuntary removal and/or compensation negotiations, and have not yet been removed or compensation has yet to be received. A “yes” response on both of the following is required to continue to Part C and for consideration of credit:

Voluntary removal: Yes No Uncompensated removal: Yes No
